The hotel is an 18th century Cotswold property situated in the charmingly idyllic Oxfordshire countryside offering a traditionally tranquil setting.

The hotel is presented in two and a half acres of gracefully landscaped gardens with panoramic views.

An award-winning fine dining restaurant, the hotel is large enough to cater for your professional requirements, but also small enough to give personal service.

Our staff are renowned for being polite and courteous whilst attending to your every need remaining unobtrusive and professional.

We also have ample car-parking spaces, so all you need to do is get here and let us take care of the rest.

Our ambition is to provide that unforgettable experience and transcend your expectations.
